The 95th Season

Rutgers Football

Rutgers, The State University

Rutgers, The State University, began as a struggling colonial college before the Revolution! Founded in 1766 by Dutch pioneers, Rutgers was originally called Queens College under a charter from King George III of England. The young college's existence was threatened by the Revolution, but growth followed that conflict, just as unprecedented expansion was experienced after the last World War.

Rutgers was given its present name in 1825, after generous gifts had been received from Colonel Henry Rutgers, a New York philanthropist. Forty years later it was designated the Land Grant College of New Jersey, the liberal arts course was enlarged, and courses leading to bachelor degrees in agriculture and engineering were added.

In 1902 a ceramics department was established, New Jersey College for Women with its own New Brunswick campus, was founded in 1918; the School of Education added in 1923; and in 1925 the Extension Division for non-degree education and the School of Journalism were established. The College of Pharmacy was added in 1927, University College, degree-granting evening division, was established in 1934, and Newark University was merged with Rutgers in 1946. In 1945, the State Legislature brought all divisions of Rutgers within the designation of the State University of New Jersey. In 1950, an act of the State Legislature incorporated the College of South Jersey in Camden, including a two-year liberal arts college and a law school, into the State University as the Rutgers College of South Jersey. The liberal arts college has since expanded to a four-year curriculum. In April, 1955, N.J.C. was renamed Douglass College. In 1956, under a reorganization program, the University was officially designated, Rutgers, The State University, and came under the management of an 11-man Board of Governors.

Dr. Mason W. Gross, the 16th president of the University, was inaugurated in May, 1959.

Rutgers currently is in the midst of a nearly $50,000,000 construction program largely financed through passage in 1959 of a state bond issue. The Men's Colleges in New Brunswick, by 1965, will have approximately doubled the 1957 enrollment (3,000 to 6,000).

The Rutgers Coaching Staff

John F. Bateman, Head Coach

AFTER three years as a head varsity coach, John Bateman owns one of the best winning percentages in the nation—.786. He built this record with two fabulous seasons—8-1 and 9-0—before last year, when Rutgers was 5-5. Under his direction, Rutgers has defeated Princeton twice, won two Middle Atlantic Conference titles (before withdrawing from the league) and three Middle Three championships.

Bateman, who was an assistant at Columbia under Lou Little for 11 years and at Penn under Steve Sebo from 1957 through 1959, is a native New Jerseyman. He attended Central High and St. Benedict's prep in Newark before entering Columbia in 1934. He played guard under Little at Columbia, captaining the 1937 Lion eleven. He returned to Columbia as an assistant in 1946 after three years in the Navy and three years as coach at Middletown, N. Y., High School.

The holder of a master's degree in political science and a doctorate in education from Columbia, Dr. Bateman is Rutgers' 15th football coach since 1900. He and his wife have three sons. They live in Highland Park.

Matthew J. Bolger, Jr., Assistant Coach

ENTERING HIS eighth year at Rutgers, Matt Bolger served here four years under John Stiegman and continued on the staff under John Bateman. Charged specifically with the ends, he also assists with offensive line play. Born and raised in Newark, he is a 1948 graduate of Cornell and coached five years at Brown before coming to Rutgers. A veteran of the Marine Air Corps, he has a 40-14-1 three-year record as coach of the Scarlet baseball team. Matt, his wife and three children live in Edison Township.

DeWayne "Dewey" King, Assistant Coach

ARENOWNED EXPERT on pass defense, Dewey King is in his fourth season at Rutgers. A graduate of the University of North Dakota, his main staff responsibility is with the defensive backfield. A native of Cando, N. D., King was an assistant at Michigan State before serving from 1954 through 1959 as a Penn assistant under Steve Sebo. King, who lives in New Brunswick with his wife and son, came to Rutgers with Bateman, who was a fellow assistant at Penn.

A book about pass defense by King, "Jericho," was published recently.

Warren Schmakel, Assistant Coach

AFORMER ASSISTANT coach at the University of Nebraska, Warren Schmakel has been developing solid lines for Rutgers the last three years. A graduate of Central Michigan University, where he was a Little All-American guard, Schmakel primarily is responsible for the defensive line. Now in his fourth Rutgers season, he has coached at Toledo and Miami of Ohio and was head man at his alma mater in 1950. A Navy veteran, he lives in Franklin Township with his wife and three children.

Frank Burns, Assistant Coach

RUTGERS' ALL-TIME great quarterback, Frank Burns returned to Rutgers in 1961 after four years at Chatham, N. J., High School. Burns twice previously served Rutgers, first as freshman coach and later as varsity backfield coach. He also was head coach at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore. A native of Roselle Park, Burns was an all-east quarterback and an outstanding catcher on the baseball team as an undergraduate. Burns, whose chief assignment is coaching the offense backfield, lives in Berkeley Heights with his wife and three children.

Robert Naso, Freshman Coach

A 1959 RUTGERS graduate, Bob Naso excelled in football and lacrosse as a player and in 1961-62 became varsity lacrosse coach and freshman football coach for his alma mater. He was assistant lacrosse coach for two years and in 1959 coached the 150-pound football team. He and his wife, Carole, live in New Brunswick. They have one daughter.

Rutgers Athletic Administration

Albert W. Twitchell, Director of Athletics

AFTER A distinguished coaching career which terminated in 1961, Albert W. Twitchell succeeded Harry J. Rockefeller as director of athletics at Rutgers. A 1935 graduate of the University, Twitchell has been a member of the staff since 1947 as a coach and administrator.

Twitchell won six varsity letters as an undergraduate, captaining the 1934 football team as center and winning the Donald Leslie Coursen trophy, highest individual athletic award given at the University.

A native of Dedham, Mass., he began his coaching career at North Plainfield, N. J., High School. He went to Sewanhaka High School in 1937, served later as assistant football coach at Hofstra College, then returned to Sewanhaka as head coach of football and lacrosse until 1947.

He coached sub-varsity football and freshman lacrosse at Rutgers until he became varsity line coach in 1949 and succeeded his own former coach, Fred Fitch, as varsity lacrosse mentor in 1950. During his 12 seasons as lacrosse coach, his teams won 90 games, lost 31 and tied one. He became assistant to the director of athletics in 1952, later was named assistant director.

Twitchell is past president of the U. S. Lacrosse Coaches Assn. and the Inter-collegiate Lacrosse Assn. He coached the North all-star team in 1953 and was named "lacrosse coach of the year" in 1958.

Kenneth G. Germann, Assistant Director

IN HIS THIRD year on the Rutgers staff, Ken Germann is a veteran coach and administrator. A 1943 graduate of Columbia University, he was an outstanding football and basketball player as an undergraduate. A marine corps veteran, he spent 11 years as director of athletics and football coach at Iona Prep in New Rochelle, N. Y. He was freshman football coach at Columbia from 1957 to 1960. Germann has been one of the East's top basketball and lacrosse officials for 15 years. He holds a master's degree from Columbia Teachers College. He coaches the 150-pound football team.

Otto H. Hill, Business Manager

PPROMOTED TO the newly-created position of business manager of athletics in 1961, Otto Hill has been a member of the Rutgers staff since 1947. A 1942 graduate of Rutgers, he served in the Army and Air Force during World War II, returning to earn his master's degree in 1947. He coached junior varsity and freshman football, moving up to the varsity as end coach in 1953, a post he held through 1955. He was freshman swimming coach from 1947 until 1956, when he succeeded the late Jim Reilly as varsity swimming coach. He relinquished that post to take over his present assignment and direct the University's equatics program.

The Outlook — 1963

An uphill struggle faces the Rutgers football team this fall. Coach John Bateman must solve problems at most positions. Most pressing are uncertainties at end and in the backfield.

Lee Sherman is the only end returning who earned a letter in 1962. No other aspirant played more than a little. All backfield posts need attention.

"We didn't fare quite as well as we expected to last fall," Bateman said. "But now the pressure of the 17-1 record achieved during 1960 and 1961 is gone. We should be hungry again and I'm counting on that factor to overcome some of our shortcomings."

Rutgers has few established players. Captain and guard Tony Hoeflinger and center Jon Paulson started all the 1962 games. The only other players who appeared occasionally as starters are Sherman, halfback Paul Strellick and fullbacks Drew Carollo and Ritchie Poad.

Hoeflinger is Rutgers' best football player. He's beyond reproach in his blocking and tackling and is a fine line-backer.

Two quarterback candidates, Rich Novak and Dave Stout, earned letters a year ago. They are likely to share the signal-calling assignment.

Bateman's workhorse back might be Doug Reeser, a 6-1, 192-pound halfback. Doug has speed and strength, but has been injury-prone. If he stays healthy, he will be a threat to break away. Strellick is a fine defensive halfback and a scat-back type on offense. Also, he's a good receiver. Other experienced offensive halfbacks are Jim D'Antonio and Bob Mudie. Bill Herring and Bill Green return to play defense. John Canavan, a junior and former Army plebe, could help at halfback.

Three lettermen fullbacks—Carollo, Poad and Don Viggiano—are back. Carollo plays only offense and may get pushed by junior Joe Miano or sophomore Bob Brendel. Poad and Viggiano are good line-backers.

Sherman lacks outstanding speed, but is a competent all-around end. Three juniors—Jim McCoy, Fran Pease and Jim Hackett—are up from the jayvees.

If an off-season operation has cured Gus Giebelhaus' leg injury, the 6-3, 235-pounder will be the Scarlet's top tackle, possibly one of the best in the east. John Chadwick and Bill Sparks had impressive sophomore seasons a year ago and with Dick vonBischoffshausen and Bob Rader, juniors, and sophomore Jerry Sertick could give Rutgers a strong tackle contingent.

Bateman is counting on junior Jeff Grote to have a good year at guard, possibly teaming with Hoeflinger on the first unit. Others who will help are Stan Cherrie, a 1961 letter-winner, Frank Kuch and Bruce Lawrence.

At center, Paulson and Bob Norton, backed by four promising sophomores, give the Scarlet good depth.

"There's a lot to be done," Bateman said. "We hope to learn a great deal about ourselves in our scrimmage against Cornell. If we can avoid some of the many injuries which crippled us last year, I think we'll give a good account of ourselves against everyone."

The Leading Scarlet Knights

The 1963 Captain

ANTON (Tony) HOEFLINGER, senior guard. Pound for pound one of the finest football players in the country. According to Coach Bateman, "as good a guard as he's seen". . . A former fullback, Tony has started the last 18 games . . . Is fast as a back, exceptionally strong, has great determination . . . Is line-backer on defense, always near the action . . . Graduate of Butler High School . . . History student.

Ends

THOMAS BLAKIE, junior. Originally a member of the class of 1964, Tom was out of school a year . . . Was a regular on the outstanding freshman team of 1960. . . . Good blocker and defender . . . Graduate of Deerfield Academy . . . Psychology student.

WERNER FRENTROP, junior. A good receiver, Frentrop has been away from football for two seasons . . . Was a regular on talent-deep 1960 frosh squad . . . Was standout at Nashaminy (Pa.) High . . . Likes to be called "Frenchy" . . . Horticulture student

JAMES HACKETT, junior. After apprenticing last fall, Jim could be one of 1963's regulars . . . Tall and lanky, he's been maturing physically and may go over 200 pounds . . . Competed for wrestling team during winter . . . Attended Shady Side Academy, Pittsburgh . . . Liberal Arts student.

JAMES MCCOY, junior. Jim made terrific early impression last fall, played regularly for a while . . . Slumped in mid-season and saw little duty thereafter . . . Has great potential, based on quickness, speed and toughness . . . Attended Pittsburgh's Westinghouse High . . . Accomplished artist . . . Liberal Arts student

PHIL MITCHELL, sophomore. Biggest of the sophomore end prospects . . . Originally was a tackle at Binghamton (N. Y.) High School . . . His forte is defense . . . Is student in College of Engineering.

JOHN OLICHNEY, senior. Returning to football after two years out of school . . . John could be a top receiver . . . Has good speed and fine catching ability . . . Recently married . . . Graduate of Spencer (N. Y.) High . . . Liberal Arts student.

JOHN OLIVER, sophomore. The leading pass catcher on last year's freshman team. . . . Played at Kingston, Pa., High School for former Rutgers griddier, Jim Fennell . . . Also competes in wrestling . . . Physical education student

FRAN PEASE, junior. Fran saw limited action as a reserve last fall . . . Is aggressive, works hard, spirited performer . . . caught one pass in '62 . . . Attended Loomis Prep, Windsor, Conn. . . . Student in biological sciences, hopes to attend medical school.

LEE SHERMAN, senior. The only letterman end on the squad, Lee is a good blocker and defender . . . He caught three passes last season, but has only average speed . . . Resisted attempt to make him a tackle . . . Did not play in 1962. . . . Attended Vineland High School . . . President of Chi Phi fraternity . . . Political Science student.

DAVE THORNE, junior. Dave is a graduate of the junior varsity squad . . . Saw limited varsity service . . . May be the number one punter if he can develop consistency . . . Attended Williston Academy (Easthampton, Mass.) . . . Liberal Arts student

Tackles

JOHN CHADWICK, junior. Quick and strong, Chadwick is smaller than most tackles but gets the job done . . . Last year won trophy as player who had made "most improvement and progress". . . Graduate of Haverhill (Mass.) High . . . Geography student.

AUGUST (GUS) GIEBELHAUS, senior. If Gus reports healthy and can regain the spirit he showed early last year, he could be one of the East's best . . . Knee injury in first intrasquad scrimmage ruined season, although he lettered . . . Had operation during winter . . . Throws shot in track . . . Rahway High alumnus . . . History student.

ALAN KARCHER, junior. A graduate of the jayvee squad, Alan started slowly last fall, showed considerable improvement . . . A dean's list student, he is active in many campus activities . . . Is married, has daughter . . . Shot putter in track . . . Graduate of St. Peter's High . . . Student in English honors program.

CHARLES PRICKITT, junior. On the verge of being a regular last year, Charley just missed earning a letter . . . Could possibly be shifted to end if tackle problems are solved . . . Played all line positions at Metuchen High School. . . . Liberal Arts student.

ROBERT RADER, junior. Bob underwent minor surgery shortly after practice began last fall, missed entire season . . . Won eastern 191-pound wrestling championship during winter as sophomore . . . Will play football at about 210 . . . Graduate of Somerville High . . . Business student.

JEROME SERTICK, sophomore. Jerry gave promise last fall of being outstanding frosh tackle, then suffered knee injury, corrected by winter surgery . . . Attended LaSalle High (Niagara Falls, N. Y.) . . . Physical education student.

WILLIAM SPARKS, junior. With the tackle slots hit heavily by injuries, Bill played great deal . . . Showed considerable skill on defense, was erratic offensively . . . Was all-state lineman at Woodbridge High . . . Student in geology.

PETER GOGUTS, sophomore. Tackles were injury-prone on all levels last fall and Pete's effectiveness with frosh was handicapped . . . He, too, had off-season surgery . . . Competed at heavyweight for frosh wrestling team . . . Attended Shamokin (Pa.) High . . . Agriculture student.

RICHARD vonBISCHOFFSHAUSEN, junior. A regular on the frosh eleven of 1961, Dick was out of football last fall . . . He is definitely "in the picture" this season . . . Was teammate of Jeff Grote's at Thomas Jefferson High, Elizabeth . . . History student.

Guards

STANLEY CHERRIE, senior. A letterman on the undefeated 1961 team, Stan concentrated on his studies last fall . . . He improved grades by the spring and played baseball . . . Is co-captain elect of 1964 nine (catcher) . . . Good line-backer, has good speed . . . Graduate of Millville High . . . Psychology student.

JEFFREY GROTE, junior. Converted from center in mid-season, Jeff played enough to earn a letter despite painful ankle injury . . . Should be "ready" for good year this fall . . . Very strong, has adequate speed . . . Is graduate of Elizabeth's Thomas Jefferson High . . . English student.

ANTON HOEFLINGER, senior. See "Captain," beginning of section.

SPENCER HOOS, sophomore. One of leading guard aspirants from 1962 freshman team . . . Hoos prepped at Worcester Academy after playing at Red Bank Catholic . . . Has experience at guard and tackle . . . Electrical engineering student.

CARL KIELBASA, junior. A regular with the 1961 frosh, Carl was hurt in pre-season drills last fall, got off to a slow start, and spent most of his time with the jayvees . . . Attended Division Ave. High (Levittown, N. Y.) . . . Physical education student.

FRANK KUCH, senior. A jayvee in 1961, Frank divided his time last fall between "alternate" team and third unit . . . Built himself up from 170 to 190 pounds via weight lifting . . . Was reserve on varsity baseball team . . . Coatesville (Pa.) High alumnus . . . Economics student.

BRUCE LAWRENCE, junior. A highly-promising prospect last fall, Bruce fell victim of eye infection and was forced out for entire year . . . If layoff hasn't hurt his conditioning, he could step in and play regularly . . . Brother Dick was regular end on 1961 team . . . Phillipsburg High graduate . . . Physical Education student.

EUGENE RENNA, sophomore. Gene had a slow start last fall, but made a good impression in the latter portion of frosh season . . . His build and movements are similar to Capt. Hoeflinger's . . . Graduate of North Plainfield High . . . Business administration student.

Centers

ROBERT NORTON, junior. Bob did remarkable job of defensive signal-calling as sophomore last fall . . . Won "alternate" team job in pre-season training, held it all year . . . Reserve catcher in baseball . . . Is team "humorist". . . Graduate of Watertown, Mass., High . . . History student.

JON PAULSON, senior. Jon had a brilliant sophomore season, took over starting role last fall . . . Is former high school fullback . . . Excels as line-backer, hopes to improve offensive techniques . . . President of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity . . . Originally from Tenafly, lives in Lees Summit, Mo. . . . Intends to become minister . . . History and Philosophy student.

PETER SAVIDGE, sophomore. Pete had slight edge over teammate Fred Schmidt for frosh honors last fall at center . . . Participated also in freshman wrestling and lacrosse . . . Brother is sophomore tackle at Princeton . . . Graduate of Hun School . . . Physical Education student.

Quarterbacks

ROGER KALINGER, junior. The fastest and best runner among the quarterbacks, Roger is also the shortest . . . His passing, therefore, must be off running plays . . . Played with jayvees last year . . . Was shortstop-outfielder in baseball . . . Threw 23 TD passes as senior at Wood-Ridge High . . . City Planning student.

RICH NOVAK, junior. Rich impressed with his leadership and take-charge ability in pre-season practice and held number two signal-calling job all season . . . Is leading candidate for regular job . . . Good passer and play-caller, is not known as runner . . . Also capable defensively . . . Graduate of Butler (Pa.) High. . . . Economics student DWAIN PAINTER, senior. "Butch" could be "sleeper" at quarterback . . . Had hopes of playing last year, but lost out and played with jayvees . . . Some varsity action on defense as line-backer . . . Good passer, average runner . . . Married last year . . . Graduate of Gateway High (Monroeville, Pa.) . . . Physical Education student.

DAVID STOUT, junior. After a slow start, Dave improved rapidly last fall and was a regular pass defender latter third of season . . . Got only occasional chance on offense, but showed running and passing ability . . . Threw one TD pass . . . Was standout at South River High . . . Spanish student.

Halfbacks

JOHN CANAVAN, junior. Making his first appearance on the Rutgers football scene, John spent 1960-61 as Army Plebe . . . Played lacrosse for Rutgers last spring, on defense . . . Is big, strong, fast, could be major factor in backfield. . . . His only shortcoming is long layoff since last football action . . . Graduate of Blessed Sacrament (New Rochelle, N. Y.) . . . Agriculture-Economics student.

JAMES D'ANTONIO, senior. A scatback type, Jim is an elusive runner and fine pass receiver . . . Has good speed and is top competitor . . . Also plays mid-field in lacrosse, earned "most improved" trophy last spring . . . Place-kicking ability . . . Honor student in ceramic-engineering program (Tau Beta Pi) . . . May go to medical school . . . Attended Aliquippa (Pa.) High.

WILLIAM GREEN, junior. Almost lost in the shuffle last year, Bill turned out to be a valuable defensive back and earned letter playing on the corner . . . Intercepted two passes, almost went all the way with one . . . Probably will be shifted to safety position . . . Graduate of Dumont High . . . Ceramic engineering student.

WILLIAM HERRING, senior. Bill for two years has been a corner-linebacker on defense and done most of the kicking off and place-kicking . . . Had one field goal, nine conversions last year . . . Was in only a few offensive plays . . . Graduate of Marple-Newtown (Pa.) High . . . Economics student.

THOMAS KEHOE, senior. Tom gave indications of having above-average ability last fall but was almost constantly injured . . . If he can stay healthy, he may fit into pattern as defensive back or specialist returning kicks . . . Played baseball last spring . . . Attended Hawthorne High . . . Political Science student.

ROBERT MUDIE, junior. Shifted in mid-season from quarterback, Bob progressed well and by end of year saw limited action . . . Hard runner, he has speed and could earn regular berth . . . Brother of Sam, former quarterback, now with Pittsburgh . . . Regular midfielder for lacrosse team . . . Graduate of Bensalem (Pa.) High . . . Spanish student.

DOUG REESER, senior Doug, with size, speed and experience, could be the Scarlet's chief ball carrier . . . Formerly a straight-away runner, he got better "feel" for running last fall . . . Hope is that he can avoid injuries which have plagued him in past . . . Graduate of Scranton (Pa.) High . . . Industrial engineering student.

PAUL STRELICK, senior. Paul may be the Scarlet's top two-way back . . . Although slight in build, he is reliable ball carrier, utilizing speed and shiftiness. . . Is exceptional deep defender against passes . . . Leading returning pass receiver . . . Played lacrosse last spring . . . Graduate of Charleroi (Pa.) High. . . Hopes to attend dental school . . . Engineering student.

CHESTER WARD, sophomore. Chet may be the top-ranking of a good group of sophomore halfbacks . . . Has good size and fine speed, likes to run outside . . . Graduate of New Castle (Pa.) High . . . Engineering student.

Fullbacks

ROBERT BRENDEL, sophomore. A potential Steve Simms, it is hoped, Bob is a former River Dell High School end and fullback . . . He has good power, is big enough to "hurt people" . . . Was outfielder for frosh baseball team . . . Business administration student.

DREW CAROLLO, senior. Strong and fast, Drew is the leading returning ground-gainer . . . Didn't quite match predicted performance last year, is hoping to regain form that made him star as freshman in 1960 . . . Gained most of yardage in two games . . . Had some injuries . . . Graduate of Monessen (Pa.) High . . . Plans to attend medical school . . . Romance Languages student.

JOSEPH MIANO, junior. Inopportune injuries prevented Joe from making varsity debut last year . . . Played considerably with jayvees, however . . . Good runner but has little experience playing defense . . . Graduate of Benedictine High (Cleveland) . . . Sociology student.

RITCHIE POAD, senior. Ritchie saw the most two-way service of the fullbacks . . . Lacks outstanding speed, but averaged 3.5 per carry last fall . . . Scored two touchdowns . . . Graduate of Elyria, O., High . . . Hopes to attend medical school . . . Biological sciences student.

DONALD VIGGIANO, junior. Don came along late in season to play regularly when injuries hit top fullbacks . . . Has adequate two-way credentials, although lacking size . . . Graduate of Shelton (Conn.) High . . . Physical Education student.

PRINCETON PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 18; Lettermen Lost: 18

Although a senior backfield, which played almost in tact for three years, is gone, Princeton has ample manpower returning to give its single wing attack terrific punch. In particular, the Tigers have one of the east's top fullbacks in Cosmo Iacavazzi, and four tailbacks returning.

In addition, Coach Dick Colman has good first string line strength back almost everywhere except center and end. The development at these positions probably will determine how Princeton fares in 1963. In Bill Guedel, Princeton has a strong, quick captain and tackle, who is probably its outstanding lineman.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Princeton 15, Rutgers 7

Rutgers started off against the Tigers as if its fifth win in a row in the series was going to be achieved easily. In a 10-play, 51-yard advance, the Scarlet took a 7-0 lead at 10:27 of the first period as Bob Yaksick scored on a sneak.

But Princeton capitalized on a short Rutgers punt to move 41 yards and scored on a Greg Riley to Barry Schuman pass, then got a break with a penalty to get its two points and an 8-7 lead. The Scarlet was held in check throughout the second half and the Tigers sealed the win with a 96-yard, 20-play march to a touchdown which took 10 minutes of the fourth period. Bill Merlini scored from the one.

HARVARD PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 22; Lettermen Lost: 14

Harvard will be strong at guard, center, quarterback and fullback, but will be seeking help at tackle and end. Offensively, Coach John Yovicson expects to be strong, but not as explosive as in 1962, when the Crimson had great speed. Yovicson feels the Harvard defense has the potential to improve, however.

Fullback Bill Grana, halfback Tom Bilodeau, quarterback Mike Bassett, guard Bill Southmayd (captain) and center Brad Stephens are key operatives. If a few of the outstanding sophomores from last year's unbeaten frosh team produce, Harvard could have an exceptionally fine season.

THE LAST GAME (1947): Rutgers 31, Harvard 7

Rutgers lost its first game, then won its last eight in 1947. Harvard was fifth victim in this streak in a game played in Cambridge.

Fullback John Sabo scored for Rutgers after five minutes of play. Herm Hering scored in the second period before Harvard came back to make it 13-7 at the half. After the intermission, Rutgers added touchdowns by Bucky Hatchett, another by Hering, and Harvey Grimsley, to make it 31-7.

COLGATE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 19; Lettermen Lost: 9

Coach Hal Lahar is in his second year of his second tour at Colgate and as is natural, he's expecting improvement over last year's record if for no other reason than coach and players know each other better. In 1962, had injuries not cut so deeply into the quarterback and tackle slots, the record might have been lots better than it was.

Tackles Eric Orke and John Breiten and center Mike Heffernan are solid linemen upon whom Lahar will build his forward wall. Gerry Barudin appears to be the best bet at quarterback. Guard and fullback may prove troublesome positions.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 27, Colgate 15

After a scoreless first period, Rutgers marched 58 yards and scored on a sneak by Bob Yaksick, but Colgate came back on a pass from Dan Keating to Chris Lomas for 23 yards to tie, 7-7, at halftime.

A recovered fumble at the outset of the third period set up a three-yard run by Paul Strellick as Rutgers took the lead, 14-7. Then the Scarlet marched 73 yards to paydirt, with Yaksick passing five yards to Strellick for the score. And finally, Yaksick ran 20 yards at the end of a 67-yard drive to make it 27-7. Colgate retaliated, too late, on a 48-yard run by Lee Woltman.

LEHIGH PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 12; Lettermen Lost: 11

More than half of Coach Mike Cooley's players will be sophomores, a factor which will contribute to early-season mistakes. However, the Lehigh frosh team was the best in a number of years and the Engineers are looking forward to having greater depth, with the success of the team depending to a great extent on developments at quarterback and fullback.

At the signal-calling post, senior John DeNoia, erratic in the past, will be challenged by two soph standouts, Les Kish and Bob Draucker. At fullback, newcomer Hal Yeich may oust little Mike Noel (165 pounds) from a starting job. Bill DeVinney and Don Marshall give Lehigh a pair of strong tackles.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 29, Lehigh 13

A Rutgers fumble on the 12-yard line led to an early Lehigh score by Mike Noel on a 3-yard plunge. Trailing, 7-0, Rutgers bounced back to move 41 yards for a touchdown on a one-yard slant by Doug Reeser in the second quarter and the Scarlet took a 14-7 lead as Yaksick passed nine yards to Bill Craft for the TD and then hit Bob Flower for two points.

Another fumble at the start of the third period gave Lehigh the chance for Walt King to sneak for a TD, but a two-point run was stopped and Rutgers led, 14-13. Tackle John Chadwick pulled the stolen ball trick to get Rutgers started on 72-yard march in the 4th period, with Yaksick sneaking for the score and Bill Thompson running for two points. Later, Rich Novak passed 12 yards to Paul Strelick for the final points.

PENN PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 26; Lettermen Lost: 12

If Penn can pep up its offense, it could have a fine season in 1963. Coach John Stiegman's forces have suffered little loss in key personnel and have good strength at most positions except center. For the most part, the Quakers were hard to score against last year but scored only one touchdown, or less, in five games.

Siegfried Molnar is an outstanding tackle. John Owens could come into his own and become a truly great tailback. Stiegman will be striving to get a better blend of passing and running and if Owens can master the end run-pass, Penn may enjoy a winning season.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 12, Penn 7

A great catch by Bill Craft of Bob Yaksick's pass for 24 yards gave Rutgers a 6-0 lead on Penn in the first quarter, but Bill Herring's conversion kick was blocked. Penn then moved 49 yards and John Owens dove over tackle and Siegfried Molnar converted to give the Quakers a 7-6 edge.

Bill Thompson took the next kickoff and behind a great block by Tony Hoeflinger thundered 94 yards for what proved to be the winning points. Rutgers intercepted five Penn passes to contain the Quakers, who did not cross the Rutgers 35 in the second half.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY'S PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 13; Lettermen Lost: 15

Finding a quarterback is the chief job facing Coach Steve Sinko. Last year's two top signal callers are gone and the letterman situation is thin all around. As a result, the Terriers may be forced to go with unexperienced sophomores in many key positions.

B.U. will have two outstanding guards in Capt. Bill Lesinski and Bill Budness. Phil Caito has the first shot at quarterback and Bob Horton, a former end, has been assigned to fullback to plug that weakness. The Terriers are an unknown quantity, but by the time they meet Rutgers in their seventh game of the year, their problems could be ironed out.

LAFAYETTE'S PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 11; Lettermen Lost: 19

A new system, a new coach and a scarcity of talented and experienced personnel doesn't make for winning football teams, which means that 1963 will be a "building" year at Lafayette. Ken Bunn will install a multiple offense, but will have only 11 lettermen and a sub-par group of freshmen with which to work. The frosh were 0-4 last fall.

On the plus side, Bunn will have a talented quarterback in the person of George Hossenlopp. If he can find a couple of receivers who can hold on to Hossenlopp's tosses, the Leopards may prove to be dangerous.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 40, Lafayette 0

Despite rain and cold Rutgers overwhelmed the Leopards. Bill Thompson's three-yard run and Bill Herring's kick and follow-up field goal made it 10-0 at the quarter. Bob Yaksick climaxed a 77-yard march with a two-yard sneak and Thompson added two points to make it 18-0 at halftime.

Ritchie Poad scored from the three and Thompson added another two points immediately after the intermission and Rich Novak tossed to Jay Bohnel for a 35-yard scoring pass later on. Rutgers' final points came on an 11-yard pass from Novak to Bob Flower. Rutgers outgained the Leopards, 312 to 52 and limited the heralded Lafayette passer, George Hossenlopp, to two completions for seven yards.

DELAWARE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 18; Lettermen Lost: 11

With only seven regulars missing from last year's powerful team, Coach Dave Nelson is aiming at a second consecutive Lambert Cup. He has great strength at all positions, except up the middle. The halfbacks, especially, are strong, with Mike Brown, Joe Slobojan and John Wallace all returning.

Just how strong the Blue Hens will be will depend on Chuck Zolak's work at quarterback, the discovery of a fullback and how well Norm Wilkinson does at center where last year's captain, John Scholato, held forth. Graduation also took several defensive specialists and the defensive backfield needs some attention.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Delaware 23, Rutgers 6

Delaware adjusted to the mud and rain much better than did Rutgers and controlled this game almost from the outset. The Scarlet reached the three-yard line in the second quarter, but a penalty and fumble gave Delaware the ball and the Hens went 84 yards to a score, with Tom Michaels running the last 7. John Osborn kicked a 37-yard field goal to give the Hens a 9-0 lead at the half.

Delaware covered 62 yards on its next drive, with Ted Kempinski sneaking across, and Mike Brown's 4th quarter run of three yards capped a 52-yard march for its final points. Sophomore Dave Stout saved Rutgers from a shutout, tossing four consecutive passes for 70 yards, the last one to Jim D'Antonio from the 11 for six points.

COLUMBIA PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 19; Lettermen Lost: 8

Far from being a "one-man gang" as it was last year, when Archie Roberts carried it to a winning year, Columbia may be more than just a darkhorse contender for its league title (Ivy). The Lions has a good freshman group and Coach Buff Donelli is expecting to have his largest squad since taking over the Lions in 1957.

In addition to the fabulous Roberts, who is one of the nation's most versatile players, Columbia has standouts in center Jack Strauch and halfback Al Butts. Fullback Arne Jensen, a 215-pounder, may give the Lions a dangerous inside threat.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 22, Columbia 6

Defense, especially in the matter of putting pressure on the passer, won this game for the Scarlet. Rutgers' restricted Archie Roberts to 39 yards in the air. Rutgers struck early in the second quarter for a touchdown, Bob Yaksick's sneak capping a 61-yard drive. In the last 20 seconds, the Scarlet scored in one spectacular play, a 48-yard pass from Yaksick to Bill Craft.

Craft was on the receiving end of another long pass, from Rich Novak in the fourth quarter. This play covered 64 yards and gave Rutgers a 22-0 lead. Columbia scored with less than a minute to go as Roberts completed three consecutive passes.

FOOTBALL'S FIRST GAME

The first official inter-collegiate football game was played on Nov. 6, 1869, between Rutgers and Princeton. There were 25 men on a side and goals, rather than touchdowns were scored. Rutgers won the inaugural, 6-4, with the game played on the site now occupied by the Rutgers Gymnasium.

Although the game was much like rugby, it was the fore-runner of present day football. Soon, Columbia, Yale and other schools began to play and the game pioneered in New Brunswick has become one of the world's most exciting spectacles.

To recognize New Brunswick as football's birthplace, sportswriters, football officials and fans in 1949 selected the city for the location of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. A major drive is expected to be launched this year for funds to construct the building, which will be located several hundred yards north of Rutgers Stadium.

It is interesting to note that William J. Leggett, captain of Rutgers first team, later became a distinguished clergyman of the Dutch Reformed Church. His counterpart, William Gunnere of Princeton, later became chief justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

Football people are proud that so many of the game's standout players become standout citizens. It is their firm belief that football is one of the prime contributors in molding the character and personalities of our future leaders.
